

Jazz Appreciation Month

Jazz up for April — a time to celebrate Jazz Appreciation Month in honor of one of America’s earliest and iconic art forms. Jazz music is an enchanting blend of more than one ethnicity. It utilizes the American and European interpretation of classical music with the added spice and influence of West African culture and folk songs. Jazz was first compiled by musicians in African-American communities in New Orleans, Louisiana in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Unlike other music genres, jazz emanated from people who were underclass and descended from slaves. They were oppressed yet invented one of the greatest musical gifts of all time. Jazz music has everything going for it — a unique history, a melody that stays with you, the harmony that makes the notes sound fuller, a rhythm that beats with your heart, and the outstanding improvisations that set the genre apart. See flyers for more details on this month’s events.

Pre-Town Hall Jazz Concert with the Conejo Jazz Quintet

Friday, April 12 12:30 p.m. Catalina Hall

The Conejo Jazz Quintet was formed in 2021 and includes members of the Unforgettables Big Band. Members include Scott Yawger (trumpet and vocals), John Cheas (tenor sax), James Morgan (piano), Dean Dods (bass), and Rod Harbour (drums). The group plays traditional jazz standards from the Great American Songbook. These are the tunes that everyone remembers and loves!

Jazz Pianist Tim Martersteck

Friday, April 19 3:00 p.m. Catalina Hall

Tim Martersteck is a gifted keyboardist, composer and audio engineer. He spent two years studying jazz piano at the New School in New York City before graduating with a Bachelor of Music in Jazz Piano Performance from the University of Denver. Tim teaches jazz piano, songwriting and music production at Musician’s Institute College of Contemporary Music in Hollywood. He will be playing an hour-long solo jazz piano concert, featuring standards and ballads from the Great American Songbook with some Latin jazz and R&B sprinkled in.

Down 4 The Count A Cappella Jazz Performance

Thursday, April 25 3:00 p.m. Catalina Hall

Down 4 The Count began in 2003 when six CSU Northridge students in the University's vocal jazz ensemble found they shared a common interest: wanting to sing ensemble vocal jazz, a cappella. Since that time, Down 4 The Count has won multiple awards, especially for their musical arrangements. They will perform selected pieces that exemplify the history and evolution of jazz music in the United States from the 1930s through the 1970s.

Scott Bartchy Jazz Trio

Tuesday, April 30 3:00 p.m. Catalina Hall

Resident jazz pianist Scott Bartchy will bring his new trio to Catalina Hall. Following a few sentences about how to enjoy listening to modern jazz, they will play Scott's arrangements of such standards as "Summertime," "All the Things You Are," "My Funny Valentine," "Stella by Starlight," a bit of boogie-woogie (by request), and a few of Scott's own compositions.
